1. The problem of disappearing police officials remains a continuing topic for discussion in Berlin, both at the Allied Komendatura and in municipal offices. The outstanding police official arrested was Police Major Karl Heinrich, former Commandant of the Berlin Security Police, but there have been many lesser cases. In all cases the missing police officers were arrested by Soviet authorities.

- 25X1X 2. [REDACTED] an SMA functionary concerned with police matters, let it be known that the payment of subsidies to dependents of police officials arrested by the Russians would be construed as anti-Soviet propaganda, inasmuch as it implied that such arrests were being made without cogent reasons.
